KURTZMAN CARSON CONSULTANTS (KCC) EXPANDS CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT ADMINISTRATION SERVICES

El Segundo, Calif., February 1, 2010 – Kurtzman Carson Consultants LLC (KCC), a Computershare company and leading claims and noticing agent, today announced that it has consolidated its Class Action operations with Computershare's Administar business. This will bring service enhancements and technology advances to clients engaged in complex litigation.

"The consolidation brings the best of Administar and KCC together to reach a broader market with increased capabilities and capacity," said Jon Orr, KCC's President. "After years of pioneering innovative methods to save clients time and money throughout the course of litigation matters, we're able to offer best practices for class action administration."

KCC and Administar's class action specialists bring 20 years of experience in managing settlements totaling more than $20 billion and involving millions of class members. For counsel and clients engaged in class action litigation, KCC's comprehensive services include pre-settlement consulting, class member management, legal notification, call center support, claims administration as well as disbursement and tax reporting.

Clients will continue to receive support through their current teams, while all services will be marketed and operated under the KCC brand. KCC's offices will grow to include a fourth location in Jacksonville, in addition to its locations in Los Angeles, Memphis and New York.

Orr stated, "We are committed to delivering a higher standard of client service to the class action market. Our experienced client services team helps guide counsel through the complexities of settlement administration eliminating unnecessary expenses, inefficiencies and inaccuracies."
